DATED: 14TH JULY, 2005

1. Heard both sides.

2. The applicant has been convicted under Section 367 and 452 of I.P.C. The maximum sentence imposed on the applicant is three years.

3. It is stated by the learned advocate for the applicant that the applicant was on bail pending the trial and this liberty has not been misused by him. This statement has not been controverted by the prosecution. It is further submitted by the learned advocate for the applicant that the maximum sentence imposed on the applicant is three years and this appeal is not likely to be heard within the said time. Hence, he has prayed that the applicant may be granted bail. Looking to all these facts and circumstances, I am inclined to grant bail to the applicant.

4. The applicant Anand Bandu Adole to be released on bail in the sum of Rs.12,000/- with one or two sureties to make the said amount. The applicant shall report on second Sunday of every month to Ambad police station at Nashik, during the pendency of this appeal.

5. Application is disposed of.
